Skateboard Party 3 Pro: extract the archive folder to /sdcard / Android / obb / – it should look like this: /sdcard/Android/obb/com.ratrodstudio.skateparty3/ – the size of the unpacked cache 510 MB – install apk, run the game! Rating: (1 votes, 5.00/5) A 3D stunt skateboard sports game. Players in the game will be fully experienced in this game the real skateboard scene, the ultimate challenge. This game self-sufficient WIFI or Bluetooth link fight, as long as your friends play, then compete with it. And this game is more complete system of achievements, players can gain experience through the game to upgrade their characters, define their own dress and so on, in the game you can also see the achievements of skateboarders around the world, you rank? When the player just enters the game, the game will prompt the player if he or she needs to get into beginner training to be familiar with the game. This feature is very important for beginner players, especially those who have never experienced skateboarding. The game will first introduce the game to the screen of each button and elemental features, and will be different modes of the game players a brief introduction. After the player officially enters the beginner training level, the game player directly drag the joystick on the left side of the screen to control the skateboard player to move, and in the right side of the screen is jump, grab and so the action button, the player click scans Which can do the appropriate action, the operation is still relatively simple. The game is divided into career mode, free-sliding mode and multiplayer three modes, in career mode, players need to get as many points as possible in a limited time, but there is no such limitation in free-fall mode, Needless to say, multiplayer games require players to play online with friends or other skaters. Although there are fewer action buttons in the game, players will score less when doing just a single action. Therefore, players must combine different actions and score successful points to score higher scores. In the game for players to prepare many different styles of skateboarding sites, including OC ramp skate park, Venice Beach, Chinatown, etc., and also have different roles for the player to choose from, there are a variety of brands of clothing and equipment The initial attributes that allow players to buy and replace these characters are low, but experience gained through game after game can help them upgrade, while skateboards are also available in different designs and sizes for players to choose from. Game content It can be said is very rich.
